

ADDRESS ALL CORRESPONDENCE TO THE FIRM.

EDWARD RIDLEY & SONS,

GRAND, ORCHARD & ALLEN STREETS,

New York Apr 5 1893To Director of U.S. Mint
Philadelphia.

Dear Sir:

Please state whether the enclosed coin (dime) is genuine; and also the cause for the evident irregularity in the coinage. It has a smooth edge and both sides of the coin are impressed alike, that is one does not have to turn it from top to bottom to read the reverse side.

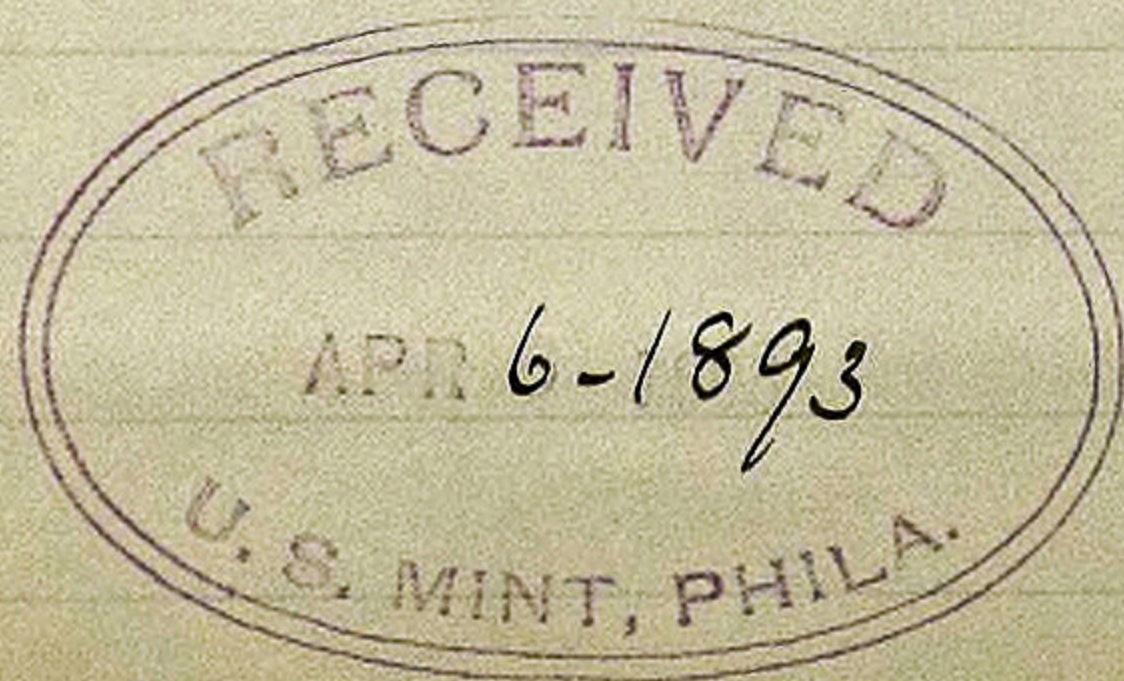

Very truly yours,
Edward Ridley & Sons
New York

New York.

April 5, 1893

Edwin Ridley & Sons

Ask if enclosed Drim is genuine -

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 180

[Abstract:] Ask if enclosed Dime is genuine.

Edward Ridley & Sons,
New York,
April 5, 1893

To Director of U.S. Mint
Phila., Pa.

Dear Sir:

Please state whereby the enclosed coin (Dime) is genuine; and also the cause for the incident irregularity in the coinage. It has at smooth edge and both sides of the coin are impressed alike, that is one does not here to turn it from top to bottom to read the reverse side.

Very truly yours,
Ridley & Sons
Iranell